

School Review of Conduct and Discipline

The Child Development Project is funded by the federal government in order to understand factors that affect children's social, academic, and behavioral development. In the long run, the knowledge gained from this project will aid in the development of programs to foster positive development in children.

The child named below has participated in this project since 1986. His or her parent has provided written informed consent for the project to acquire information from the school about the child's behavior. We hope that you will help the project by answering the questions below.

Thank you.
